The city of Lyon

Lyon is a city in east-central France in the Rhône-Alpes region, situated between Paris and Marseille. Lyon is located at 470 km from Paris, 320 km from Marseille, 160 km from Geneva, 280 km from Turin, and 600 km from Barcelona. The residents of the city are called Lyonnais.

The city of Lyon has 480,660 inhabitants. Together with its suburbs and satellite towns, Lyon forms the second-largest metropolitan area in France after Paris, with the population of its urban area estimated to be 1,422,331 and that of its metropolitan area 1,757,180. Its urban region represents half of the Rhône-Alpes region population with 2.9 million inhabitants. Lyon is the capital of this region, as well as the capital of the smaller Rhône department.

The city is known for its historical and architectural landmarks and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Lyon was historically known as an important area for the production and weaving of silk and in modern times has developed a reputation as the capital of gastronomy in France. It has a significant role in the history of cinema due to August and Louis Lumière. The local professional football team, Olympique Lyonnais, has increased the profile of Lyon internationally through participation in European football championships.

Economically, Lyon is a major center for Banking and also the chemical, pharmaceutical, and biotech industries. The city contains a significant software industry with a particular focus on video games, and in recent years has focused on a growing local start-up sector.

Lyon also hosts the international headquarters of Interpol, Euronews and International Agency for Research on Cancer. Lyon is ranked 2nd in France as an economic center and convention center on some measures. Lyon was in 2010 ranked 9th globally and 2nd in France for innovation.

Arrival day and Departure day

Arrival day is Saturday, 11th April and departure day is Monday 20th April. Please let us know your arrival time to Lyon when we'll gather the information that will help us to welcome you the best way we can!

How to get here

From Lyon's Airport (Lyon St Exupéry)

There's a tramway that takes you from the airport to Part-Dieu Central Station called Rhône-Express (http://www.rhonexpress.fr) it leaves every 15 minutes, a single way (12-25 years) ticket costs 12€50 at the tickets machine and 11€50 on the internet. Both ways ticket costs 22€ at the machine and 20€50 on the internet.

From another airport in France or by train

If you arrive to France but to another city first (Paris or elsewhere), you should take the train to Lyon Gare Part-Dieu (meeting point) or Gare de Perrache (then take the tramway T1 direction IUT Feyssine until the stop at Part-Dieu Vivier Merle).

Here is the website if you need to take a train: http://www.tgv-europe.com

For any further information, don't hesitate to ask us.

If ever you get lost or there is a problem, the accommodation will be at university (20 Av. Albert Einstein 69100 Villeurbanne). To get there from any of the train stations, take the tramway T1 direction IUT Feyssine and stop at INSA-Einstein or take the T4 direction Gaston Berger till the last stop Gaston Berger.

Call the main organizer if there's any problem (contact info at the end of this guide)

INSA LYON

Located on the premises of the Science and Technological Park of la Doua in Villeurbanne, INSA Lyon is ranked among the top universities of Science and Technology in Europe, pluridisciplinary and international, at the heart of the European Higher Education Area.

INSA Lyon is accredited by the CTI "Commission des Titres" to deliver Engineering Degrees.

Over a 5 year curriculum it trains Humanist multi-competent engineers who are both innovative and entrepreneurial. INSA Lyon applies a policy of excellence implemented at all levels. INSA Lyon was the first INSA to be created in 1957 and has always had a strong ambition in terms of social awareness.

It graduates over 800 engineers each year in 12 fields of specialization. International perspective has always been a priority for the establishment which has progressively set up international options such as EURINSA, ASINSA, SCAN and AMERINSA.

Today INSA Lyon sets a new challenge for itself: consolidate its position as one of the best Technological Higher Education Establishments in Europe. The University places pedagogical innovation at the core of its training program in order to produce engineers who possess qualities of innovation and entrepreneurship.

It is located 20 minutes from Lyon centre. The tramway T1 can take you directly to INSA Lyon and its very close campus.
